

The Army War College Foundation is proud to host a reception during the annual academic program visit of the current U.S. Army War College Resident Class to New York City.

The purpose of the event is to enable alums and friends of the College to get an update from and exchange ideas with the Commandant and other College leaders, and to meet members of the current class in a beautiful and historic location in Manhattan.

The Union League Club is a fitting venue for this reception as former Secretary of War Elihu Root, who established the U.S. Army War College in 1901, served twice as the club's president.

You and a guest are cordially invited to join the Commandant and select members of the faculty and the U.S. Army War College Resident Class of 2020
